WHEREAS, the code currently provides for only one nonvoting, ex officio position in the Edmonds Historic Preservation Commission to be filled by an Edmonds City Council member; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that up to two of its members should served as ex officio members in the Edmonds Historic Preservation Commission; NOW, THEREFORE,

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EDMONDS, WASHINGTON, DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Amended. Subsection B of ECC 10.90.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

B. The commission shall consist of nine voting members and one or two nonvoting, ex officio positions to be filled by Edmonds city council members. The commission shall include at least two professionals who have experience in identifying, evaluating, and protecting historic resources and are selected from among the disciplines of history, architecture, architectural history, historic preservation, planning, cultural anthropology, archaeology, cultural geography, American studies, law, and/or real estate. Six positions shall be filled by citizens of Edmonds with the demonstrated interest in historic preservation. Furthermore, in special circumstances, exceptions to the residence requirement of commission members may be granted by the mayor and the city council in order to obtain representatives from those disciplines.

Section 2. Effective Date. This ordinance, being an exercise of a power specifically delegated to the City legislative body, is not subject to referendum, and shall take effect five (5) days after passage and publication of an approved summary thereof consisting of the title.
